FORMER CITIZEN DIES

Word was received by relatives here yesterday of the death of Judge K. M. Hord, aged 72 years, at his home in Shelbyville, Ind. Judge Hord died on Monday morning following a short illness of pneumonia. He was born in Mason county, leaving at an early age. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Shelbyville, having been Circuit Judge of that county for 16 years. He was a brother of Mrs. Josephine Noyes-Rogers of this city, who will attend the funeral.

HAD GOOD OPENING
The opening of the Gem Theater after having been closed for a number of months was made yesterday. Large crowds were present on the opening day. The Gem was always very popular with the picture lovers of Maysville and the best of pictures obtainable could be seen there. The new managers are planning to keep the Gem up to its old standard of showing only the best.

HAS APPENDICITIS
Dr. G. L. Howard, one of Maysville's most prominent physicians, is suffering from a very acute attack of appendicitis. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

LEG CUT OFF

Negro Run Down by Street Car Last Night About 10 O'clock Near the Coal Docks—Will Probably Die From Injuries.

A negro man, between the ages of 35 and 40 years was run down by a street car last night near the coal docks about 10 o'clock, his left leg being cut off and several cuts about the head were sustained.

Motorman John Richardson was in charge of the car which was going west. The night was rather bright about the time of the accident, the moon being almost full. A freight train was going in the same direction, the negro being on the railroad track. Not noticing the car he stepped from one track to the other and before Mr. Richardson could apply the power to stop the car the man had been run down.

He was put on the car and taken to Hayswood Hospital immediately, where Drs. Taulbee, McClanahan and Quigley attended his wounds. His left leg was cut off below the knee and several cuts about the head were sustained, all of them very deep. He had been knocked unconscious and at 9:30 o'clock this morning had not regained consciousness.

The negro's name is Meldin Bailey, that address being found on a letter, which he had in his pocket from his mother in Asheville, North Carolina, addressed to him in Portsmouth, Ohio.

A report from the hospital this morning was to the effect that chances of recovery were very slim.

WAR EXPECTED WITH AUSTRIA-HUNGARY

Dual Monarchy Severs Relations With United States as Result of German Pressure—Bulgaria and Turkey Likely to Follow Suit.

Washington, April 9—Austria-Hungary, ranging herself unreservedly with Germany, has severed diplomatic relations with the United States, precipitating a situation which generally is expected here to lead to war.

Baron Erich Ewiedinek, the Austrian chargé, asked the State Department today for passports for himself, his staff and the Austrian consular force in this country, and simultaneously American Minister Stovall reported from Berne that Austria had announced the break in relations to the American embassy in Vienna yesterday.

Immediately the Treasury Department ordered the seizure of all Austrian merchant ships in American harbors. The Austrian crews were taken off and American guards put on board. The measure was explained as purely one of police caution, but it is realized that it may be interpreted by Austria as an act of war. In a similar situation after the break with Germany no ships were seized until a state of war had been declared.

Whether Bulgaria and Turkey are preparing to follow suit still is unknown, but officials generally believe that sooner or later they will do so. Both Bulgaria and Turkey are believed here to be weary of the war, but German domination of the Central European alliance is expected to drive them, as it drove Austria, to a break with Germany's new enemy.

Telegrams prepared a week ago in anticipation of the day's developments have been sent to American diplomatic and consular officials abroad instructing them to wind up their conduct of Entente interests in Austria and of Austrian interests in Entente countries. Spain will take over American interests in Austria and Sweden will assume Austrian interests here.

Safe conducts for the former Austrian officials on their trips home will be sought at once from the British and French Governments. With them will go Count Tarnow Tarnowski, the newly-appointed Austrian Ambassador, who arrived in New York on the day Germany announced her campaign of ruthlessness, but whose credentials President Wilson has refused to accept while negotiations proceeded to develop how fully the Vienna Government endorsed the submarine policy of her allies.

BIG PRICE FOR BUTTERFAT

EBENEZER PRESBYTERY

Will Convene Today in the First Presbyterian Church on West Third Street—Many Delegates Will Be Present.

The annual meeting of the Ebenezer Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church will convene today for a three days session in the First Presbyterian Church on West Third street tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Delegates will be present at the meeting from all over this section of the state and surrounding territory.

The Presbytery will be opened by a sermon by the Rev. W. E. Beale of Falmouth, Ky. Following the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Beale a new moderator for the session will be elected by the assembly.

The day meetings of the Presbytery will be devoted to the church business.

The night meetings will be of a popular character. Wednesday night will be devoted to a missionary meeting and will be addressed by the Rev. R. T. Gettys of Smithboro, Ky., who will talk on his work in the mountains of this state. Miss Crouse, a missionary worker, will speak on Foreign Missions.

The roll of the members will be published in the Ledger tomorrow.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet at the Methodist Episcopal Church on Wednesday and Thursday.

Every one is invited to be present at all of the services.

PARENT'S DAY

April 13 will be observed in some of the schools of Mason county as Parent's Day, other schools observing the day on April 20, the Friday following. On this day the parents of the school children are urged to visit the schools and see just what is going on. It will encourage the children, the teacher and the parent.

REBELLED AGAINST STUDYING GERMAN

WILL BE ASSISTANT UNDER-TAKER

Mr. L. Porter Ray of Sardis, has accepted a position with the McIlvain, Knox & Diener Co., as assistant undertaker and embalmer. Mr. Ray is a graduate embalmer and has had a great deal of experience in the work with his father, who conducts an embalming and undertaking business at Sardis. Mr. Ray worked in the Growers Tobacco House during the winter season and is well known to a large number of Maysville people. We wish him the best of success in his new position.

The Presbytery will be opened by a sermon by the Rev. W. E. Beale of Falmouth, Ky. Following the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Beale a new moderator for the session will be elected by the assembly.

The day meetings of the Presbytery will be devoted to the church business.

The night meetings will be of a popular character. Wednesday night will be devoted to a missionary meeting and will be addressed by the Rev. R. T. Gettys of Smithboro, Ky., who will talk on his work in the mountains of this state. Miss Crouse, a missionary worker, will speak on Foreign Missions.

Perfect Colors

Pattern—by which we mean not merely design, but the degree of merit in its printing, and the brilliancy and tone of its coloring—is the big selling factor in linoleums.

Our Linoleums patterns have color superiority, are clean-cut, never smoky or streaky.

And they're up-to-the-minute in style, including the light-face patterns and every other new effect at prices that can't fail to please you, because they have not advanced. Surprising as it seems, we are still selling these high grade goods at before-the-war prices.

We have 75 patterns of new design linoleums in three different widths—8-4, 12-4, 16-4.

In our yard wire linoleum we have twelve handsome patterns. This width will cover the average room without a joining—a sanitary feature appreciated by all women.

A WAR POLICY

The response which the nation will make to the President's words to Congress will be the more generous because it has had to wait so long for the opportunity to express itself. After nearly two years of introspective attempt to evade facts which have multiplied in number and in horror, the President has turned to the realities of the era and his address to Congress states with accuracy the basis for the action which he urges and which the nation is ready to take.

The President's policy, as he outlined it, means that the United States becomes a full partner in the enterprise of war, ranging itself at the side of the Allies and, as Mr. Wilson says, co-operating with them in counsel and in action.

We shall contribute to the war not only our money and our other material considerations, but our ships and our men. We shall make complete common cause with the English, the Italian, the French, the Belgian, the Russian, the Serbian, the Roumanian and the Montenegrin. The measure of our contribution may and probably will determine the duration of the fighting. If we can speedily take our place in the theater of operations, on land and sea, with an adequate force—and especially if we can do so within the fateful 120 days which German spokesmen have set as the limit of their endurance under present conditions—we shall doubtless see a perceptible shortening of the period of warfare. Such a contribution is plainly implied in the President's suggestions to Congress; and such a contribution Congress should immediately provide for.

By such a policy we shall not only assist in bringing this war to a close, but we shall assure and insure ourselves against a like necessity for the future. Now is the time to bulwark America for generations to come. The President at last has realized what others have foreseen for more than two years; and it is the duty of Congress and of the nation to see to it that his wise and brave words are speedily translated into commensurate action. The Republicans in Congress are pledged to this course by the declarations of the Chicago platform; the Democrats will do well to forget the mushy platitudes which they adopted at St. Louis; and all should now stand by the President as he forsakes phrases and faces facts, to the end that there shall be no faltering, by him or by anyone.

PAINT AND FLOWERS AS CONSERVERS OF HEALTH

"A merry heart," said Solomon, "doth good like a medicine," and about the greatest discovery modern medical science has made is that Solomon told the truth when he said it.

We not only feel well because we are well; we also are well because we feel well. Whatever promotes cheerfulness and contentment promotes good health. The man with pleasant things to listen to and look at, other things being equal, will have better health than the man who must hear and see unpleasant things.

It is so flight of fancy or stretch of the imagination, therefore, to say that the farmer who gets the grass to growing in his front yard; who plants shade trees and flowers and shrubbery; who paints his house and makes it attractive, is helping in a very real way to keep himself and his family cheerful—and well.

Roses and honeysuckles may be as effective health agents as fly screens and ditching spades. Paint may do as much as disinfectants to keep the children merry and strong. Keeping well is something more than avoiding sickness. The man whose home surroundings are such as to make him "feel bad" every time he sees them cannot be expected to keep well. It is doubtful if he is ever really well.

Put on the paint this spring and encourage the grass and the flowers to grow about your home. You will be both wealthier and healthier for it.—Southern Agriculturist.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved
After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak... I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught."

REORGANIZATION PLANS

Perfected—Additional Capital Secured
—Officers and Board of Directors Elected.

(Western Tobacco Journal)

At the meeting of the stockholders of Lovell-Buffington Tobacco Company, Covington (Ky.) last week, reorganization plans were perfected. They have secured a large amount of additional capital, also the services of some men who have been in the tobacco business all their life, and with this new energy and capital are bound to inject new life in the company and make the business a success.

This company has been a prominent manufacturer of tobacco products for more than fifty years and their goods are known favorably wherever tobacco is used. Among their best known brands are Bull Dog Smoking and Chewing and Fountain Fine Cut.

The officers are as follows:

President—Thomas H. Gray.

Vice-President—C. C. Chase.

Secretary—Rawlins D. Best.

Treasurer—F. J. Unkenholt.

The Board of Directors elected were: C. C. Chase, president Eagle Cordage Company, Covington; F. Stacy, Ghent, Ky.; G. M. Booker, Huntington, W. Va.; Guy W. Mallon, Cincinnati, Ohio; Rawlins D. Best, Cincinnati, Ohio; H. J. James, Covington, Ky.; Thomas H. Gray, Maysville, Ky.

Thomas H. Gray, formerly vice-president, and now president, had for some time conducted a business of his own. Previous to that he was connected with the American Tobacco Company and R. J. Reynolds Company as Leaf buyer.

C. C. Chase, vice-president, is president of the Eagle Cordage Company, Covington (Ky.), and a director in the Fifth-Third National Bank of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Rawlins D. Best, secretary, served in that capacity before, and in addition, because of his intimate knowledge of the local trade, will also have charge of the city territory.

F. Stacy, Ghent, Ky., is a prominent Leaf Tobacco man, well known in the Burley Society and member of the Board of Control.

G. M. Booker, Huntington, W. Va., is an experienced tobacco manufacturer and the company considers itself fortunate to secure him, as he comes with a good reputation and will become general manager.

Guy W. Mallon, Cincinnati, Ohio, is prominent as an attorney in this city.

H. J. James, who was sales manager of the Lovell-Buffington Company, and is well known all over the country for his knowledge of the Tobacco business, will continue in charge of the sales department.

B. D. Best, who, up to the time of re-organization served as president of the Lovell-Buffington Tobacco Company, has tendered his resignation to take effect at once. He became connected with the firm in 1890 as Leaf buyer, and served in that capacity for two years, when he became president of the company, which position he held until he handed in his resignation last week.

Although he has retired from business he still retains a substantial amount of stock in the company. He will leave in a few days for his winter home in Florida, and after his sojourn there will return to his blue grass farm in Bourbon county, Ky., where he will spend a portion of his time, though he promises that the lakes of Northern Wisconsin will not be neglected by him during the fishing season, and the employees of the company, knowing his fondness for this sport, presented him with a complete fishing outfit.

B. D. Best, who is in his seventy-third year, feels as if he well deserves a rest at his time of life, and the company sees him go with regret, as he has filled his position in a masterly manner, and was no small factor in

WOULD CONNECT CHICAGO WITH NEW YORK

The Type Used in One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Forty thousand benefited people gladly testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of metal twice as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the lines of type would reach from New York to Chicago. These miles of good words told by 40,000 tongues sound glad tidings to any Maysville sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Here's a Maysville case. Don't experiment. Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

John J. Bramel, bookkeeper, Walnut street, Maysville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and in fact, I attribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was in 1902 that I was suffering a great deal. After long use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I became well and had no bad effects for many years. Recently however, I noticed my kidneys were not acting right and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble and I didn't lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chanslor's Drug Store. They again gave me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful medicine."

Mr. Bramel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Bramel had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50¢ all store. gaining for it the present recognition accorded the company as a maker of high-class tobacco products.

A PLEA FOR THE PLAY-GROUND FROM THE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

Among the newly recognized needs of a good school the Parent-Teacher Association holds an important place. Something was lost out in the transition from the old days when the teacher boarded round; something so valuable that it seems worth while to hunt it up and bring it back.

Call it what you will, sympathy, acquaintance, understanding between teachers and parents, it completes about the child a circle of care and protection, and its dropping out left a gap there which many a child wandered to destruction.

To bridge again this gap between the home and the school, to restore the old time relationship between two sets of people whose success depends upon their hearty co-operation is the purpose of the Parent-Teacher Association.

In the study of child nature, its needs and demands, and in the consideration of how home, school and community are meeting these needs and demands the answer is evolved. Members of the community learn that their interests are ours. The school is the one place where all meet on an equal plane with a strong common interest. The enlightenment of the more studious and conscientious illuminates the twilight of the thoughtless and ignorant. A new ideal is held to view and when it has become the common ideal concerted effort makes possible its attainment.

To parents, members of the highest yet most intricate and difficult profession the Parent-Teacher Association means a chance to learn; a school where new conceptions arise of school buildings and grounds, of sanitation, of children's play and what it means and how it should be provided for.

To teachers, the Parent-Teacher Association means an understanding of and co-operation in their work on the part of the parent; strong and efficient help in securing needed reforms and improvements.

Many are the material needs of a school. The teachers sigh for important improvements. Where shall they turn for aid? To the Board of Education? Impossible! Its treasury is always empty. Where then, but to the parents whose children are in school. When the Parent-Teacher Association of the High School building was organized this year it was decided by both parents and teachers that the paramount need of that school was a well equipped play-ground for the children. The lowest possible cost for the same was estimated at $120.

At one meeting $24 was given by mothers present as a free will offering. To raise the remaining amount it was decided to put on the operetta, Prince Charming, as a play-ground benefit. Miss Cornelia Jones was asked to coach the children. They are now ready to give one of the most beautiful performances ever seen in Maysville.

The children are bubbling over with the enthusiasm working for their play-ground.

It means all to your child to my child, to our neighbor's child.

Help the kiddies—come to their operetta April 13th at the High School auditorium.

You cannot afford not to.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

320,817

Have been built and actually delivered to retail buyers since August 1, 1916. These figures—320,817—represent the actual number of cars manufactured by us since August 1, 1916, and delivered by our agents to retail buyers. This unusual fall and winter demand for Ford cars makes it necessary for us to confine the distribution of cars only to those agents who have orders for immediate delivery to retail customers, rather than permit any agent to stock cars in anticipation of later spring sales. We are issuing this notice to intending buyers that they may protect themselves against delay or disappointment in securing Ford cars. If, therefore, you are planning to purchase a Ford car, we advise you to place your order and take delivery now. Immediate orders will have prompt attention. Delay in buying at this time may cause you to wait several months. Enter your order today for immediate delivery with our authorized Ford agent listed below and don't be disappointed later on.

DIVORCE AND THE DAUGHTER

A strong story picturing Divorce in its true colors, showing how the shadow of this growing social evil creeps into the hearts of the younger generation, shattering their once healthy ideas of love and marriage vows.

A family receive an inheritance. Not a large one, but great enough for them to leave their crowded city flat and move to the country where they'll have the opportunity to fulfill their long cherished dreams. The father to paint pictures that are not mere “pot boilers” and the mother and daughter to expand their ideals of home hitherto bound in the close confines of their meager means.

But their sky instead of brightening with their good fortune becomes cloudy, and dissatisfaction leads to disillusion and a broken home.

Your heart goes out to the daughter who is made the innocent victim of twentieth century ethics and who suffering one disillusion after another decides to take a step that nearly results in a tragedy.

“Divorce and the Daughter” will make you ask, “Why can't we live like our grandparents did?”

See this picture at the Pastime this afternoon and night.
